

CHILDREN'S THEATRE WORKSHOP

Touring Company Presents

The Girl Who Swallowed a Cactus

By Eric Coble

Produced with permission from Dramatic Publishing

School is out for the summer, the weather is hot and the boredom is heavy. But 8-year-old Sheila and her pack of pals aren't going to let the summer heat wear them down. When their fantastical junkyard fort draws the attention of a walking, talking, surprisingly well-dressed coyote, the adventurers suddenly find themselves deep in the desert, facing The Council of Howls, The Sting Brigade, The Death Cactus and much more. It's a whirlwind adventure about how we affect the environment and the animals with whom we share the planet, and how we take on the mission of saving the world from ourselves.

Intended for Grades 2-5

55 Minute Run time

Available for booking classrooms and youth organizations
For the September-December 2022!

How to Book The Girl Who Swallowed a Cactus

- 1.) Visit www.ctwtoledo.org/touring to read our Performance Requirements and look for our available performance dates.
- 2.) Fill out the Cactus Touring Application Form.
- 3.) Our office will contact you within a day or so to arrange your performance!

Fee Breakdown

One Performance: $80*

Two Performances: $150*

*must book no later than 3 weeks in advance.

Performances booked less than 3 weeks in advance will be subject to a $20 late booking fee.

Maximum audience for one performance: 50 students

Questions? Email us at tfriedberg@ctwtoledo.org or call 419-244-5061

Made possible with funding from the

